18 - What were the most effective aspects of this course?

Response Rate	3/11 (27.27%)
• How Prof. Wong always made sure to take time, no matter how often it needed to be repeated, to show and answer all questions that would come up in weekly assignments! • *A good balance of technical training and critical thinking. Very well organized. Emphasis on peer feedback & mutual discussion/critique. Flowed well, good range of assignments, manageable but challenging. • Everything about the course was well planned and effective. Each component of the course was useful and explained thoroughly.

19 - What, if any, suggestions do you have for the course?

Response Rate	2/11 (18.18%)
• N/A • *More technical introductory coding workshops. *Not have student feedback/commenting as part of grade.

20 - Please comment on your instructor's teaching effectiveness:

Response Rate	3/11 (27.27%)
• ABSOLUTELY effective! I've learned so much in what seems so little of a time -- that I know has set the foundation for future projects. • Very effective; strong command of topic & easily communicates it to students, supportive and fun, creates a healthy classroom atmosphere. • Virgil is an excellent teacher. He explained concepts of media in understandable terms and made the learning process a joy rather than a chore. He did an amazing job of facilitating safe space in the classroom where students could share ideas and receive thoughtful feedback from peers. Overall, I really enjoyed being in this class community and learned so much about media practices and design. If you can take design with Virgil, I strongly urge you to do so!
