18 - What were the most effective aspects of this course?

Return Rate	5/8 (62.5%)
• being forced to take up production practices when you have no background in them. • The course itself was totally uninteresting (to me, on a completely personal level), yet Professor Wong's profound sincerity made it what it was. The course itself is totally necessary, but I cannot commend Virgil enough for the care and enthusiasm he brought to this course. • Professor Wong and John created a very safe and respectful space for helpful critiquing. • The professor. Virgil was one of the best educators I've had in both my undergrad and graduate experience. I wish he taught more courses, I would definitely take them for the simple fact that he would be the professor. • I really enjoyed Professor Wong's teaching style and the weekly assignments.

19 - What, if any, suggestions do you have for the course?

Return Rate	3/8 (37.5%)
• none. • This course had so much good information. I wish there was a part two. Part one should focus on the concept building and part two on the design. • None.

20 - Please comment on your instructor's teaching effectiveness:

Return Rate	6/8 (75%)
• Virgil is a great teacher. Always has high energy and gets the point across effectively. • As above, I have an incredible amount of respect for Virgil and his teaching technique. Our class never encountered any problem too big or too small that he didn't take the time to explain. And always with a smile. • I really enjoyed this class and the Prof. was very patient with the questions we had or when we did not understand something. The only thing is that it is a lot to cover for one semester. I wish it could be divided into two semesters so I could learn more in depth each of the topics. • Professor Wong was amazing. He was always well equipped with additional resources, a listening ear and a non offensive helpful critique. • Virgil was kind, patient, and very motivating. Great Professor • I think Professor Wong is great at teaching and helping students understand and be interested in the material.

21 - Other Comments?

• Great class :D • Please ask Virgil to teach more courses. • This has been my favorite class so far. I looked forward to it every week. I would also suggest that Professor Wong teach additional courses at The New School.
