18 - What were the most effective aspects of this course?

Response Rate	6/12 (50%)
-Communication of the subject matter -Assignments, class feedback, TA/student interaction -Professor's enthusiasm of the subject • Prof. Wong not only helped us learn the basics of several different design elements, but he also helped us find our purpose and intention (why are you making this, who is your audience, what does this mean, etc). I would take another class with Prof. Wong in a second. This was easily one of the most thoughtful, helpful, practical (yet not TOO practical... still some theory) classes I've ever had. Pay him whatever he asks for for however long he asks for it. • assignments were so helpful and our school's equipment center really works well. • It was a very creative course. We did photo and video shootings, small pieces of site and etc. Course materials were very good. La Jetee film and readings were very interesting. • Expectations and assignments were very clear. • varied yet thorough topics of learning and projects to ensure in class teachings were understood.

19 - What, if any, suggestions do you have for the course?

Response Rate	3/12 (25%)
• I wasn't too fond of doing a group project in the beginning of the semester because it felt like a lot of the work fell on me, but that's clearly something we should do early in a new program so its fine. • there are lots of things to learn in this class. we learned a lot but we could not focus on details. • The course is well structured and conducive to learning the material.

20 - Please comment on your instructor's teaching effectiveness:

• You are awesome! • So good. So effective. So clear. Criticized my work in a constructive, helpful manner. Responded to emails in a timely manner. Never late for class. I'm going to miss this class a lot. • Virgil Wong's method of teaching is inspiring. He pushed us to find our inner creativity and apply it to our work ethic. This was the first class I've taken here that offered an instructor who not only taught efficiently but also motivated us to work with what we had and only go up from there. I appreciated his mindset on things so much both as a student and an artist. • He is so respectful and kind. I think his polite approach give us positive energy. Our class was so organized. Thank you prof Wong. • He was very good. I learned and enjoyed his class. • Virgil is a passionate and caring teacher. He fostered a creative and comfortable learning environment for all. • Virgil is an enthusiastic and well prepared instructor who knows how to keep his students engaged with the material.

21 - Other Comments?

Response Rate	2/12 (16.67%)
• Just all the good things. • Some projects are difficult to complete for commuting students due to limitations with equipment access and time constraints.
